

Sights on Health Privacy Statement

Last Revised: October 1, 2020.

Sights on Health is committed to processing personal information responsibly, and in compliance with applicable data protection laws. This statement describes how Sights on Health collects, uses and shares personal information and provides information about how you can contact us with a privacy inquiry.

Collection, Use and Sharing of Personal Information

When you contact us via our webform we collect your name and email address so that we can respond to your inquiry. When you make a donation, we collect your name, email address and the amount of your donation. When you register for an event that we are hosting, we collect your name, email address and the amount you paid for your ticket.

We use the personal information you provide to generate a tax letter related to your donation, to track our fundraising efforts and to manage attendance at our events. Additionally, we may use your email address to keep you informed about our missions and fundraising efforts.

We will only use your personal information for these purposes, and we will not share personal information outside of our organization. However, we do use vendors to facilitate collection of donations and event registrations and we've taken data protection into account when selecting these vendors.

We process personal information with your consent or based on our legitimate interest in keeping you informed about our activities.

Cookies

Our website uses cookies to allow for use of our website and these cookies are not associated with any personal information. Additionally, we include the opportunity for you to connect with us on social media via the Facebook "Like" button, as a result, Facebook may use cookies and website data when you browse our website. You can control your cookie preferences in your web browser's privacy settings menu.

How We Protect Personal Information

We store the personal information we collect in a secure cloud environment and we have implemented appropriate security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use and disclosure.

We are committed to retaining personal information for only as long as is necessary to carry out the purpose for which it was collected.

Data Rights

You can withdraw your consent to process your data at any time and you may have additional rights under local law to request access to, correction of or deletion of your personal information. To exercise a data right, please contact us by email at sightsonhealth@gmail.com.

How to Contact Us

If you have questions about this Privacy Statement you can contact us sightsonhealth@gmail.com.

Changes to This Privacy Statement

If we update this Privacy Statement to reflect changes in our data governance practices the revised Privacy Statement will be posted here with an updated revision date. We encourage you to check back periodically for any changes or updates.
